

Highways Common Induction

Course Aim

To provide delegates with a basic understanding of health and safety, along with knowledge of the principle hazards and risks, legislation and best practice to safely work on Highways England's Strategic Road Network (SRN).

Who Should Attend?

Those who are visiting or working on the Highways England Strategic Road Network (SRN).

Course Duration

This is a 1-day course.

Certification

Upon successful completion of the course delegates will be awarded a Highways Common Induction Certificate which is valid for 3 years.

Agenda

- Working on the network
- Fatal risks
- Understand what is Customer Service to Highways England and the Supply Chain
- Gain a basic understanding of temporary traffic management
- Be able to identify and describe main environmental issues found on sites
- Be able to describe how H&S knowledge and good working practice can improve behaviour on a works site
- Working within temporary traffic management
- Your personal health and safety commitment
- Gain an overview of Highways England's minimum expectation for working on their strategic road network (SRN)
- Be able to identify the essential health and wellbeing points to consider in the workplace
- Be able to identify examples of poor behaviour on a works site
- Occupational health and wellbeing
- Environmental protection
- Understand the main requirements of the Health & Safety at Work Act
- Be able to review fatal risks that occur when working on the SRN
- State the impact upon themselves, their lives and their families and friends of a serious accident at work
- Successfully undertake End of Course test (Pass mark 75%)

